

Sri ANNA RAO GANAMUKHI.—Sir, is it right on the part of the part of the Minister to give expression to his opinion, because the Bill is going to a Select Committee? In that case, why should it go to a Select Committee at all?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—I am only pointing out the difficulty that arise's I am not expressing my opinion. There is a possibility of this sort of a confusion or conflict of powers.

Similar is the case of the power of the Divisional Commissioner to issue direction. Apart from the opinion of any of the Hon'ble Members, what I submit is, that this an essential Bill and a timely one in order to see that police force is geared up and it will facilitate in all possible ways while framing the rules and also framing the Manual. Much has to be done for that department. Unless those things are done under one uniform law it is very difficult to expect such efficiency as we all expect either in England or elsewhere. All these things are to be done on the appropriate time, stage by stage. This is the first step that has to be done and that is why I am requesting this House to expedite it by passing this Bill.

Sri K. LAKKAPPA.—The Hon'ble Minister has not replied to the point about supervisory powers being vested in the District Magistrate instead of the Deputy Commissioner who is called as Additional District Magistrate.

Mr SPEAKER.—He says that judiciary magistrate should be given eth supervisory powers over the police.

Sri K. LAKKAPPA.—Under this provision, they are exercising powers with respect to police administration.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Select Committee will deal with all these complicated points.

The question is :

“That the Mysore Police Bill, 1962, be taken into consideration.”

The motion was adopted.

Motion to refer the Bill to a Joint Select Committee.
